1. About the Program

The Faculty of Law is one of the first faculties established by Palestine Ahliya University in 2007. The Faculty takes pride in its remarkable achievements over a short time among other Palestinian Law Faculties. The Faculty offers a Bachelor of Law Program supported by technical and practical training in order to produce qualified lawyers. A law student will undertake a number of legal subjects which vary from Public and Private Law to other important legal issues that qualify the student to pursue their higher legal studies.

The Bachelor of Law Program aims to create well-qualified law professionals who are able to promote Palestinian legislation in all fields which complement the social, cultural, and economic environment of Palestine. Further, it fills the Justice Sector's requirement (The Palestinian Judiciary, the Ministry of Justice, and the Public Prosecutor). The Bachelor of Law Programgraduates are able to be legal advisors for the Palestinian Authority's Ministries. Additionally, they are well equipped to undertake legal studies addressing social issues and challenges.

Vision

To create well-qualified legal professionals who are capable of maintaining the Palestinian legal system with integrity.

This aim is to meet the requirements of the Palestinian Justice Sector. Specifically, to promote the specialized judiciary and contribute in setting up the State of Law in Palestine.

Goals
