

Mr. Mohammad Shadeed

Email: m.shdid@paluniv.edu.ps

Mohammad Shadeed is the Dean of the College of Professions and Applied Sciences. He has been holding this position since 2019, he was the head of the accounting department in the “Administrative and Financial Sciences” faculty for six years. He supervised the updating of the BA’s plans, majoring in accounting, and supervised the corporate governance competition that was organized by the Palestinian Capital Market Authority when Palestine Ahliya University won that competition out of 6 joint Palestinian universities. Moreover, he published six research papers in the field of accounting, and completed doctoral courses in 3 semesters at the International Islamic Sciences University/ Amman, and now he is discussing the doctoral thesis. He holds the certificate of legal observer and auditor since 2010, and holder of a degree in virtual classroom management, designing and preparing electronic courses.

Dr. Shadeed taught at Palestine Polytechnic University, Al-Quds Open University and Al-Aroub Technical University, and participated in several scientific conferences, including the "Conference on Amendments Related to International Accounting Standards" "Machines and Equipment", and another two conferences for corporate governance. Furthermore, he is a member of the Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions, and holder a degree from The Islamic Research and Development Institute/ Jeddah, on a mechanism for preparing, presenting and auditing financial statements in accordance with Islamic accounting standards. In 2014/2015, he won the award for supervising the best graduation project in the College of Administrative and Financial Sciences / Accounting Department.