

Mr. Khaled Shanaa

Email: khaled@paluniv.edu.ps

Mr. Khaled Shanaa is a holder of a Master Degree in Human Rights and Democracy from BerZeit University since 2009. Mr. Shanaa is the Manager of the Project Department at Palestine Ahliya University (PAU) and the Executive Director of the Community Development and Continuing Education Institute (CDCE-I). Mr. Shanaa has a very broad thematic experience across tertiary and TVET education, institutional development, Strategic planning, entrepreneurships, Soft Skills, Good Governance, Civic Engagement, Service Learning, Economic Empowerment, and Career Counseling. He acted as the project manager and team leader of more than 25 major projects during which he was in charge of developing the projects' idea, documents, and plans, he was also in charge of networking and opening channels of communication and collaboration, in addition to managing the projects' teams and overseeing the implementation and reporting of activities and deliverables.

Overall Competencies:

- Exceptional management skills, stakeholder management, coaching and mentoring skills
- Deep experience in the design and implementation of projects and interventions.
- A collaborative team leader and energizing communicator.
- Extensive international experience including building networks and consortiums particularly in the MENA area.
- Vast experience working with donors and familiarity with their regulations particularly USAID, EU, GIZ, and World Bank.
- Design and development of guiding manuals and training material.