Events and Activities

Dr. Imad Al-Zeer, the President of Palestine Ahliya University, participates in the twentieth meeting of the Arab Universities Union, chaired by the Secretary-General of the Union, His Excellency Professor Dr. Amr Salama. The meeting, which lasted for two days, comes in light of the rapid changes and successive developments in issues related to higher education and scientific research at both the global and Arab levels. It also includes monitoring the progress and updates of the new strategy of the institution.

The Student Affairs Deanship, the Faculty of Law, the Community Development & Continuing Education Institute organize a training workshop titled (Mental and Social Support). The workshop was presented by Mrs. Nareman Azzeh and coordinated by the Head of the Activities Department, Mr. Baha Arman. It targeted first and second-year students of the Faculty of Law at Palestine Ahliya University.

The Faculty of Humanities and Educational Sciences at Palestine Ahliya University organizes a political seminar titled (The War on Gaza between the Regional and International Dimensions), presented by Oraib Al Rantawi, the founder and Director General Al Quds Center for Political Studies.

Events and Activities

The Activities Department in the Student Affairs Deanship and the Youth Friendly Health Center conclude the training program titled (First Aid)

The Youth Friendly Health Center and the Student Affairs Deanship at Palestine Ahliya University concluded the 'First Aid' course, which was implemented in collaboration and partnership with the Medical Relief Society as part of the ongoing cooperation between the two parties. The collaboration aims to enhance the services provided, supporting both physical and mental health, and responding to the current stage's requirements and the repercussions of the aggression on Gaza.

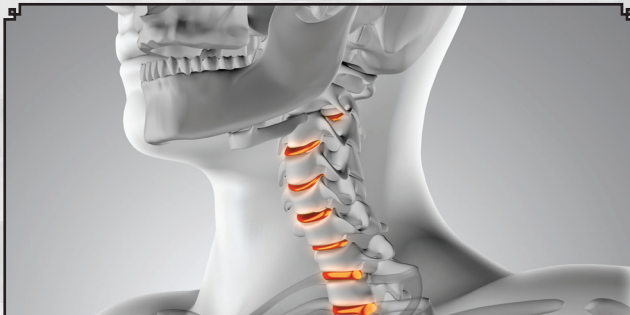

The Continuing Education Center at Palestine Ahliya University concludes the course on (Medical Cupping)

A group of second-year nursing students at Palestine Ahliya University, in collaboration with the Nursing Department at Al-Yamamah Hospital, organized an awareness activity about respiratory diseases, especially the new mutated coronavirus, and how to prevent it. The activity took place in the hospital environment, including the distribution of brochures and the placement of informative posters in various departments, including the Outpatient Department, Reception, Radiology, and Internal Departments.

Research Clinic

It is a pioneering initiative, representing the first research clinic of its kind in Arab and Palestinian universities. It aims to achieve research excellence in scientific production and build a distinguished reputation for the university in the field of scientific research at both the local and international levels. Additionally, it provides a research environment that supports and assists researchers in developing their research skills and scientific production, with the intention of enhancing the research position of Palestine Ahliya University both locally and internationally.

Research Clinic Objectives:

1. Providing research support and guidance for academics and students at the university to enhance their research skills.
2. Enhancing research production and collaboration within and outside the university to elevate the university's standing in global databases.
3. Developing the journals of Palestine Ahliya University and indexing them in global databases.
